MRS. WOOD HOSTESS AT INFORMAL AFFAIR

Mrs. A. H. Wood entertained a few friends informally at luncheon and bridge on Friday afternoon at the attractive cottage, which is the temporary quarters of the Colonial Country club, since the destruction by fire of the handsome club building.

Covers were laid for 12 on an oblong table, which was prettily decorated with plak roses arranged in baskets, caught with hows of bink tulle. Following the serving of a delicious springtime menu, the guests played bridge, pretty prizes being awarded to the winners of the algh score.

Queen's Mistake Arouses Canines

LONDON, Jan. 38.—Queen Mary made the mistake recently of wearing a huge gray fox muff when attending a meet of the West Norfolk fox hounds, according to the Central News. Just before the pack was started one of the hounds spied the muff and made for it. Soon most of the pack swarmed about the queen, to the great delight of the king and considerable discomfort to the queen. The master of the hounds finally extricated her without damage.

THE TROUBLE.

Capt. Al Waddell relates a weird excapt. Al wadden relates a weird ex-perience he encountered over there. It was during mess and the orderly offi-cers, glaring down the long table, de-manded if there was any complaints about the food.

Private Jones rose slowly and extend-

Private Jones rose slowly and extended his cup:
"Taste this, sir," he said.
The officer took a slp, hesitated a moment, and said seathingly:
"Very excellent soup, I call it."
"Yes, sir," agreed Jones, "but the corporal says it's tea, and the cook served it as coffee, and just now I found a toothbrush in it, sir," ling secretary will be appointed by the president. Delegates to the national convention in Chicago, which will held Feb 12-18, include Mrs. Puryear, Mrs. Bowser, Mrs. Fentress, Mrs. William Floyd and Mrs. S. J. Elils. At the close of the meeting Mrs. E. H. Howser made a plea for the suffering Armenians and Mrs. William Floyd responded liberally with a check for $25. The members of the rangue should be inspired to renewed activity by the election of Mrs. Puryear, an accomplished young wenner, and who is herself such an active worker, that she makes a success of whatever she uncertakes. Proof of her ability was given by the establishment of the Elizabeth club, the idea for which was originated and carried out by the committee of the Nineteenth Century club, of which she was chairman, and the co-operation of the public was secured largely through her enthusiastic interest.
